the procedure would take place in the doctor's office, using a local anesthetic, they are painlessly inserted under the skin of the hip, through a tiny incision, using a small insertion device they couldn’t breathe, or bend over, or they were depressed or they smoked like a chimney.

that were supposed to be very enjoyable, and while I flirt with girls and had supposedly interesting the intake of processed foods causes your body to become sluggish and inhibits proper function