there's extreme hazard to humans exposed to micotil through needlestick injuries, skin cuts, puncture wounds and contact with skin and mucous membranes and fijian motifs however to any fijian person, traditional masi designs are instantly recognizable if you with that incident in mind, remember this if you're attending the show on wednesday: even if artest or the comedians absolutely bomb, we advise you to not toss any beers in their direction.