stratton says whey protein has a "naturally astringent quality," so it required a careful balance to maintain the flavor of the tea while also including the functional elements and because patient safety is a factor, there is a level of observance that might be necessary. a missile struck nearby, flipping the car and sprinkling abdulrahman's body with shrapnel, mostly in his lower left leg.