it is a professional liability if he also writes the directions for you to take double the correct dose, but verbally tells you not to.

another major difference is that although it is a federal program, it is also a state program meaning the program varies in every state.